

Partnering with Intent™

Delivers Skilled Talent in Support of Culture

Talent – the single biggest issue standing in the way of CIOs achieving their objectives

Challenges:

- Adapting to the pace and velocity of digital change
- Augmenting existing staff with new resources immersed in digital and armed with soft skills
- Battling heightened competition from established and emerging players

Prevailing over these environmental challenges requires a new workforce model – Partnering with Intent.

New workforce model allows companies to:

- Rebuild trust with staff disillusioned by offshoring
- Add digital skills to existing staff's capabilities
- Champion an open, authentic work environment
- Unite talent behind shared values, singular purpose
- Create composite teams staffed with experts from a variety of sources

Partnering with Intent offers specialized digital talent that supports your culture and positions the company for digital success.
